

While I fully expect this law to be overturned (after all, this is New Jersey, which means industry pays pols to pass laws to take money from us) I do want to say, "I hope it is not overturned." Dinnertime has been quite a bit more pleasant since this wonderful (shortlived) law came to be. Please consider my plea. (but I won't hold my breath)